City School District Voters Asked To Approve 9.5 Mill Operating Levy

ers will be asked to approve a 9.5 mill levy for current operating funds in the November 3 off-year general election.

This announcement was made at noon today by the Circleville Board of Education in a special meeting. The levy resolution was approved unanimously.

The 9.5 mill levy will consist of a 6 mill renewal and a 3.5 mills additional operating levy. The levy is for 10 years.

A majority vote is needed for the levy's passage. The present levy, which expires Jan. 1, 1960, originally was for 7 mills when passed Details for the first nine days of in 1954, but was sliced by 6 mills

They Grow Up Fast

Hawaii is in the Union now and replaces Alaska as baby of the family, but don't let that disarm you. Judging by Alaska, these new states don't stay babies very long.

They catch on quick and already Alaska has an arm out in the direction of the U. S. Treasury, And one of Hawaii's new Senators was barely sworn in until he issued a long statement about how much money Hawaii wants immediately from Uncle Sam.

referred to as H. M. Forman of Dixon's column said that all 47 senators who voted for the bill of rights for rank-and-file union members had received $50 checks from Forman as a contribution to their campaigns. Sen. Thomas J. Dodd (D-Conn) who was named in Dixon's column, said he had not received such a check; that he felt libeled by Dixon's column. The bill of rights, proposed by Sen. John L. McCellan (D-Ark). was adopted by the Senate last April by a 47-46 vote.

Sen. Gordon Allott (R-Colo) and Sen. Kenneth B. Keating (R-NY) both told the Senate they received such checks and promptly returned them.

Sen, Frank J. Lausche (D-Ohio), but returned it.
